

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made between Meridian Robotics Inc., a company incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware (the “Company”), and the individual identified in Schedule A (the “Employee”). Document reference MR-2024-EXP-081.

1. Definitions

1.1 In this Agreement, “Affiliate” means any entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the Company.

1.2 “Confidential Information” means all non-public information of the Company disclosed to or acquired by the Employee in the course of employment, in any form.

1.3 “Territory” means each country and region in which the Company operates or has documented plans to operate as at the date of termination.

1.4 “Restricted Period” means the period described in Section 11.8 of this Agreement.

2. Appointment and Term

2.1 The Company appoints the Employee to the position set out in Schedule A, and the Employee accepts that appointment on the terms of this Agreement.

2.2 Employment commences on the start date set out in Schedule A and continues until terminated in accordance with Section 8.

2.3 The first six (6) months of employment constitute a probationary period during which either party may terminate on two (2) weeks' written notice.

3. Duties and Responsibilities

3.1 The Employee shall devote their full working time, attention and abilities to the business of the Company and shall perform the duties assigned to them faithfully and diligently.

3.2 The Employee shall comply with all lawful and reasonable directions of the Company and with all Company policies in force from time to time.

3.3 The Employee shall not, without the prior written consent of the Company, engage in any other business or employment during the term of this Agreement.

4. Place of Work and Hours

4.1 The Employee's normal place of work is the location set out in Schedule A, subject to reasonable travel as required by the business.

4.2 Normal working hours are forty (40) hours per week. The Employee may be required to work additional hours where reasonably necessary, without additional payment.

5. Compensation

5.1 The Company shall pay the Employee the annual base salary set out in Schedule A, payable in equal semi-monthly instalments in arrears, less applicable withholdings.

5.2 The Employee may be eligible for an annual discretionary performance bonus. Any bonus is awarded entirely at the discretion of the Company and is not an entitlement.

5.3 To be eligible to receive payment of an annual bonus, the Employee must remain actively employed by the Company and not under notice of resignation on the date the bonus is paid.

5.4 The Company shall reimburse reasonable business expenses properly incurred and documented in accordance with the Company's expense policy.

6. Benefits and Leave

6.1 The Employee is eligible to participate in the Company benefit plans generally available to employees of similar level, subject to the terms of those plans as amended from time to time.

6.2 The Employee is entitled to twenty (20) days of paid vacation per calendar year, accruing monthly, in addition to public holidays.

6.3 Accrued and unused vacation is paid out on termination of employment only to the extent required by applicable law.

7. Company Property

7.1 All equipment, documents and materials supplied to the Employee remain the property of the Company and must be returned on or before the last day of employment.

7.2 The Employee shall not retain copies of any Company records in any medium after the termination of employment.

8. Termination

8.1 The Company may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing the Employee with ninety (90) days' prior written notice, or payment in lieu of that notice at the Company's discretion.

8.2 Termination by Employee. The Employee may terminate this Agreement by providing the Company with no less than sixty (60) days' prior written notice of resignation. During the notice period, the Company may, at its sole discretion, require the Employee to perform only transition duties or to remain away from Company premises.

8.3 The Company may terminate this Agreement immediately and without notice for cause, including material breach of this Agreement, gross misconduct, or conduct materially damaging to the Company.

8.4 Where the Employee fails to provide the full notice required under Section 8.2, the Company may withhold payment of any unpaid discretionary bonus to the extent permitted by applicable law.

9. Obligations During Notice

9.1 During any notice period the Employee shall cooperate fully in the orderly handover of duties, records and ongoing matters.

9.2 The Employee shall not, during the notice period, commence work for any other employer without the prior written consent of the Company.

10. Intellectual Property

10.1 All inventions, designs, software, documentation and other work product created by the Employee in the course of employment, whether alone or with others, shall vest in and be the exclusive property of the Company.

10.2 The Employee assigns to the Company all present and future intellectual property rights in such work product, and waives all moral rights in it to the extent permitted by law.

10.3 The Employee shall promptly disclose to the Company any work product falling within Section 10.1 and shall execute such documents as the Company reasonably requires to perfect its rights.

10.4 Work created by the Employee entirely on their own time, without use of Company resources, and unrelated to the Company's actual or anticipated business, is excluded from Section 10.1.

11. Confidentiality and Post-Employment Covenants

11.1 The Employee shall hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and shall not disclose it to any third party without the prior written consent of the Company.

11.2 The obligations in Section 11.1 continue indefinitely after the termination of employment in respect of trade secrets, and for five (5) years in respect of other Confidential Information.

11.3 The Employee shall use Confidential Information solely for the purpose of performing their duties under this Agreement.

11.4 The Employee shall notify the Company promptly upon becoming aware of any unauthorised disclosure of Confidential Information.

11.5 Nothing in this Agreement prevents the Employee from making a protected disclosure required or protected by applicable law.

11.6 The Employee acknowledges that the Company would suffer irreparable harm from breach of this Section 11 and that injunctive relief may be sought.

11.7 The Employee shall not, during employment, make any public statement concerning the Company without prior authorisation.

11.8 Non-Competition. For a period of twelve (12) months following the termination of employment for any reason, the Employee shall not, within the Territory, directly or indirectly engage in, be employed by, or provide services to any business that is competitive with the business of the Company.

11.9 Non-Solicitation. During the Restricted Period, the Employee shall not solicit for employment, or induce to leave the Company, any person who was an employee of the Company during the final six (6) months of the Employee's employment.

11.10 Non-Dealing. During the Restricted Period, the Employee shall not solicit or accept business from any client of the Company with whom the Employee had material dealings in the final twelve (12) months of employment.

11.11 The Employee acknowledges that the restrictions in this Section 11 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of the Company.

12. Data Protection

12.1 The Company processes personal data relating to the Employee in accordance with its privacy notice and applicable data protection law.

12.2 The Employee shall comply with the Company's data protection and information security policies at all times.

13. Warranties

13.1 The Employee warrants that entering into this Agreement does not breach any obligation owed to a former employer or third party.

13.2 The Employee warrants that all information provided during recruitment was accurate and complete in all material respects.

14. Deductions and Set-Off

14.1 The Company may deduct from any sums owed to the Employee any amount properly owed by the Employee to the Company, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

15. Disciplinary and Grievance

15.1 The Company's disciplinary and grievance procedures apply to the Employee but do not form part of this Agreement and may be amended from time to time.

16. Suspension

16.1 The Company may suspend the Employee on full pay while investigating any matter in which the Employee may be involved.

17. Assignment

17.1 The Company may assign this Agreement to any Affiliate or to a successor in connection with a reorganisation or sale of the business. The Employee may not assign this Agreement.

18. Entire Agreement

18.1 This Agreement, together with its Schedules, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior discussions and representations.

18.2 No variation of this Agreement is effective unless made in writing and signed by both parties.

19. Severability and Waiver

19.1 If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable, that provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary and the remainder shall continue in full force.

19.2 No failure or delay by the Company in exercising any right constitutes a waiver of that right.

20. Notices

20.1 Any notice under this Agreement must be given in writing and delivered by hand, by recorded post, or by email to the addresses set out in Schedule A.

20.2 A notice sent by recorded post is deemed received two (2) business days after posting; a notice sent by email is deemed received on the next business day.

21. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

21.1 This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

21.2 The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the State of Delaware.

22. Counterparts

22.1 This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which is an original and all of which together constitute one agreement.
